

Please help keep healthy competition working in the marketplace by not allowing the Bells to dominate/control internet access and use in any way or fashion. A free and open market is the American way. Let's keep it that way. I urge in the strongest manner the proposed action by the Bells be stopped. by Charles W. Holt